THE SILVER STAR AWARDED TO RICHARD WELCH

BARBARA HOOPER IS SCHOOL COMMITTEE CANDIDATE

Mrs Barbara Hooper, 34 Marcia Road, formerly of Strout Avenue, has announced that she will be a candidate for election to the Wilmington School Committee in the March elections. She has been a Wilmington resident for 13 years.

Mrs Hooper received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Colby College in Waterville, Maine, where she was a Dean's List student. Upon graduation she served for a year as secretary to the Dean of Admissions at Radcliffe College. She attended high schools in both Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

Active in civic affairs, Mrs Hooper held office in the Wildwood Parents' Club when it was a functioning organization, was President of the League of Women Voters of Wilmington from 1965 - 67, and has been on the State Board of the League of Women Voters of Massachusetts since 1967. She is currently a representative to the Wilmington Council of Churches, teaches Sunday School and is a volunteer librarian at the Woburn Street School. She was a Cub Scout Den Mother in Pack 56 from 1962 to 1966.

Mrs Hooper is the mother of three children who attend schools on all three levels in the Wilmington School System.

In order to comply with the By-Laws of the League of Women Voters, which is a non-partisan organization, Mrs Hooper has resigned her current offices on the Boards of both the Massachusetts and the Wilmington league.

NANCY CLARK CANDIDATE FOR SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Nancy H. Clark, of 23 Floradale Avenue, formerly of 99 Church St is a candidate for election to the Wilmington School Committee. She has been a resident in Wilmington for 15 years.

A Bachelor of Science Degree from Simmons College in Boston, she was secretary to Douglas A. Thom, Director for the Childrens Bureau, Department of Labor, and Director of the Thom Clinic for Child Guidance.

During WWII, she attended St Louis University, a graduate student in teaching methods and psychology for the Army Air Forces after which she was a qualified instructor in Communications for Air Force Cadets at Scott Field in Illinois. She has taken graduate courses in creative writing and was the Chairman of the Commission on Education at the Methodist Church, after many years as Sunday School Teacher and Junior Choir Director.

An active member in the Parents Club, she was also president of the Swain PTA, and a Director at Farrington Memorial for the Congregational Society for many years.

Presently she is a listed substitute teacher in the Wilmington Public Schools, as well as the Sales Representative for Scholastic Publications for the Essex County Schools, thereby becoming well acquainted with many school systems.

A local realtor for 12 years, she is a member of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce.

Richard W. Welch, son of Mrs Mildred Welch of Brand Avenue has been awarded (posthumously) the Silver Star for Gallantry. The third highest medal for gallantry that can be given by the United States was given to Mrs. Welch in ceremonies at Fort Devens, last Friday.

GENE KRITTER CANDIDATE FOR VOKE SCHOOL BOARD

Eugene L. Kritter, 11 Pilling Road, has announced that he will be a candidate for election to the Shawheen Valley Regional Vocational/Technical School District Committee, in the March elections.

An electrical engineering graduate of Marquette University, and a Navy veteran, he and his wife Joan have been Wilmington residents for eight years. He has been active in local youth educational activities, as well as teaching advanced engineering courses for the Raytheon Institute, for three years.

He recently received the Raytheon Author's Award from the Bedford Laboratory.

TELEPHONE CALLS HAVE STARTED AGAIN

An organization which says it is conducting a charitable drive for disabled children has started calling Wilmington residents, in an appeal for funds. The calls seem to come from Lowell.

The person who calls says that the organization has received the approval of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, on being asked.

No application for such clearance has ever been filed with the Wilmington Chamber, according to its secretary.

The mild-mannered youngster who grew up in the Silver Lake district of Wilmington, and who volunteered for the US Army in July 1967, soon after graduating from High School is the fifth Wilmington resident to have been awarded the Silver Star, and the youngest.

The presentation, last Friday, to Mrs Welch, was by Brig. Gen. John A. Cushman, United States Army.

Citation

Welch, Richard W. Private First Class, United States Army, Company B, 4th Battalion (Airborne) 503rd Infantry, 173rd Airborne Brigade.

Private First Class Welch distinguished himself by exceptionally valorous actions against an armed hostile force in the Republic of Vietnam on 13 September 1968, while serving with Company B, 4th Battalion, (Airborne), 503rd Infantry, in the vicinity of Duc Lap.

At approximately 0930 hours, under heavy overcast and intermittent rain, Company B moved out on a reconnaissance in force mission. As they advanced to their objective through dense vegetation and over rugged terrain they suddenly came under extremely heavy fire from an estimated company-size hostile force.

Private First Class Welch, a machine gunner, immediately responded by placing maximum effective fire upon the enemy and providing cover for the men in his platoon, allowing them to move forward.

Disregarding his personal safety, he continued to advance from position to position, time and time again exposing himself to heavy fire in order to continue placing intensive fire on the enemy. He inflicted heavy casualties upon the enemy force and his timely and effective fire enabled the men of his company to maneuver against the hostiles. As he again maneuvered toward the enemy he was struck and fatally wounded by hostile automatic weapons fire.

His aggressive actions resulted in the saving of many lives through out his platoon and company and directly contributed to the success of their mission.

Private First Class Welch's initiative, courage and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself, his unit and the United States Army.

Election Contests Are Shaping Up

The deadline for filing nomination papers with the Board of Registrars is next Monday, at 5 pm. Nomination papers must again be filed with the Town Clerk, by 5 pm February 3rd. The last day to withdraw, or to object to a nomination is February 4th.

50 valid signatures are needed for nomination, and no words other than 'candidate for re-election' may be added.

As of Wednesday afternoon there were five sets of papers out for Selectmen, for the two posts that will be vacant.

Perennial candidates Felice P Vitale and Charles Greene are again filing.

Bruce MacDonald, past chairman of the Finance Committee, Robert Leahy, member of the Redevelopment Authority, and incumbent James R Miceli seem to be the candidates in the running.

There are four announced candidates for the School Committee, Omer Houle, of Chestnut Street, Joseph Paglia of Nichols Street, Mrs Nancy Clark of Floradale Avenue, and Mrs Barbara Hooper of Marcia Road.

Simon Cutter of Church Street and John M Callan of Woburn St. are candidates for the post of Moderator.

Eugene Kritter of Pilling Road has declared himself a candidate for the Shawheen Valley Voc-

The Sad News

The sad news, in this year 1969, is that taxes are on the increase. Everywhere in the Commonwealth this is true. One figure this column has seen in the past few days says that there will be an average increase of 14% for all the 351 communities in the Commonwealth.

In Woburn the mayor says it will be $12. In Andover the Town Manager was quoted last week in saying that it will be over $4. Concord will have $6 or $7, as will Weston. It is the same practically everywhere. One of the big reasons is that the state has a perplexing financial situation, and the various towns and cities have to allow for an increase in taxes until they know what the score is state-wide. Yesterdays papers said that there would be no difficulty, but it hasn't been proven yet.

In Wilmington the Town Budget, prepared by the Town Manager, shows a $9 increase. The $35 rate of 1968 bids to be $44 in 1969.

Possibly this is high. Possibly the increase, when all is said and done, will be $7.

The School Committee has increased its budget 15%, or about $350,000. That's a $3.50 increase in taxes. Add another $3 for the perplexing situation in the Commonwealth, and then add a dollar or so for the bonds on the new Shawsheen Avenue School, and another dollar or so for the new Library, and there you are.

Last summer the Selectmen called one of their Special One Article Town Meetings for the sole purpose of reducing the tax rate $1, by voting out $100,000 in proposed taxes for 1968.

It turns out that that Special Town Meeting was a Poor Political Guess. If it had not been held the tax payers would still have been happy, and there would have been an extra $100,000 in Free Cash, so-called, for 1969. Instead of $9, or $7, as the case may be, the increase would have been $7, or $5.

The only person in town who didn't like that Special Town Meeting, last summer, was one Sterling Morris. He happens to be the Town Manager of Wilmington. Perhaps he could foresee what was coming - but Morris never speaks up, after the politicians have grabbed onto a subject. He just will not mix into a political situation, and it now turns out that last summer's vote was political.

Nickles and Dimes

One astute, but former member of Wilmington's Finance Committee once observed that after the School Committee of Wilmington gets through the only thing for the Finance Committee to do is to argue about the nickles and dimes that are left.

The state law, and it is no joke, will not allow a Town Meeting to alter in any way a School Department budget. The six persons on a School Board decide what money they want for the coming year, and all the tax payer has to do is to dutifully go to Town Meeting and vote that money. If the Town Meeting refuses, the town can be fined 25% of the budget, in court - and there have been cases in point.

The School Budget, this year, is up $350,000 or so. No one knows the exact figure yet, but that one is being circulated.

And the people of Wilmington can just vote for that budget. No asking. No Questions. No Nothing.

It is getting so that there is no more Democracy in the old fashioned Town Meetings. The Town Meeting just has to grin, and like it.

Nickle and Pennies

The result of the looming tax increase is playing hob with the Town Manager's budget, if this column has read the signs aright.

The Board of Selectmen are in a very uneasy position. They, more than anyone else in town, are political creatures, and they rise and fall by the tax rate.

Last year the Town Manager produced a very good budget. This column commented on it at the time. It is to be presumed that this year's budget is just as carefully prepared.

The Selectmen are now holding executive sessions, over that budget. With not a bit of doubt, they are chopping off $300 here, and $50 there, just to make things look better for themselves.

They aren't Nickle and Diming the Town Manager's Budget. They are Nickle and Pennyning it.

And many good programs might suffer, for the sake of political expediency.

For Joe Lynch,

- A Comrade-in-Arms

To Joseph R. Lynch of 100 Grove Avenue, the ceremonies to be held in Washington DC next Monday have a special significance.

An old comrade-in-arms, and his Commanding Officer for ten months of combat duty in World War II is going to become the Vice President of the United States.

Spiro Agnew was Company Commander, with the rank of First Lieutenant, in the 54th Service Company of the 10th Armored Division. PFC Joe Lynch was in the 21st Tank Company of the 10th Armored, but for 10 months he was on special assignment to the 54th Service Company.

There was another Lynch too, Alfred. The two brothers served together. Both were Wilmington natives, and grew up on lower Woburn Street, about where the Mac-Bick plant is today.

They went to France together, in the 10th Armored, and Joe became the heavyweight wrestling champion of the Division.

It was about the time of the Battle of the Bulge that Joe was transferred to Agnew's command. He served with Agnew to the end of the war, and in a couple of hot battles too.

Ever hear of the Battle of Crailsheim? The newspapers of the day called it a 'Second Bastogne'. Joe and Agnew were there - it is just west of Nuremberg, in Germany.

Joe last saw Agnew in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, the place where the 1936 Olympics were held. That was when Joe was transferred back to his old company.

But Brother Al stayed on, and in the recent election, last November, Al was co-chairman of the Agnew for Vice President in the State of Delaware.

Joe voted for Agnew.

'Who else?' he says - even though he is a Democrat.

Agnew was a very good officer, according to Lynch. 'A good egg, well liked, easy going, no gripes, and he worked for his men'.

'I thought he was a very good company commander!'

Lynch is a member and Past Commander of the Nee-Ellsworth Post of the VFW, but he is also a member of the 10th Armored Division Association.

He, and his brother Al, and a fellow named Agnew.

CITIZENS SHOULD PROTECT THEMSELVES - BUILDING INSPECTOR

Roy P. McClanahan, Building Inspector of the Town of Wilmington has stated that there have been recent cases in Wilmington where questionable contractors have been making contracts with unsuspecting home owners, and then either doing shoddy work, or no work at all.

Some then collect their fees and then leave town before anyone realizes what has happened, McClanahan said.

The Building Inspector urges the homeowner to protect himself by requiring the contractor to take out a building permit before work is started, and then insisting that all construction, wiring, chimneys and plumbing be inspected before the contractor leaves the job.

The office of the Building Inspector in any city or town exists for one purpose only - to insure the protection and safety of the inhabitants as far as construction is concerned, McClanahan told the Town Crier. The Building Code allows ordinary repairs to be made to any building without a permit. Ordinary repair does not include additions, garages, new roofs, siding, new bathrooms, dormers or complete remodeling.

If there are questions as to what are ordinary repairs, call the Inspector, and he will provide an answer.

If the homeowners will insist that a contractor obtain a permit and then insist that the work be inspected, it will result in satisfactory work, and a possible saving of time and money.

'GOOD SAMARITAN' IS 'MUGGED'

The Detective Bureau of the Wilmington Police Department is investigating a holdup, which occurred at about 6:45 pm Sunday, on Brattle Street.

Robert Kenney, 30, of 28 Dobson Street was driving his car to the gas station, and he stopped to help a couple of fellows. He lost about $2 and a watch as a result, and suffered some lacerations about his head.

Kenney told the police that two young men were in an old black Chevrolet, which was across Brattle Street, and he had to stop his car.

One of the fellows told Kenney that their car was stuck, and asked him to help.

When he got out two others jumped on him. One of them was carrying a knife. In addition to taking money and watch, they beat him, before the left.

A CCD Class from St Thomas Church under the sponsorship of Mrs. Joan Kritter was present as observers. The members of the class included: Pat Lounsbury, Kerry O'Rourke, Linda Bridges, Lorraine Kenney, and Carole DeStefano.

Frank L Hoyt of 79 Glen Road was drawn for Juror Duty at Civil Court in Lawrence on February 3, and the pool in Cambridge will have Melvin I Bloom of 54 North Street and Florence L Danell of 11 Kiernan Avenue.

Notice of the resignation of Mr Richard Keane of the Shawsheen Regional Vocational School Committee was read, and Mr Banda made a motion to table the appointment to fill the vacancy until March 2.

A hearing for New England Tel and Tel was set for January 27th, New Business

Miceli inquired if the Drainage Study that had been approved for the Town covered residential and industrial area, and he was assured by TM Sterling Morris that it did.

TM Morris and Assessor Tony Krsinski will attend the meeting for the City and Town Officers on the Fiscal Crisis of 1969 on Feb 6 at 10 am at the Hawthorne Room in the Parker House in Boston.

Miceli complimented the TM on the lights on the lake and after some discussion, the TM agreed to have the Fire Department check the safety of the ice. Miceli then commented on the apparent interest in town on skating and the many good facilities that are now being utilized. A resident of Shawsheen Avenue spoke about the parked cars at the Cranberry Bog on both sides of the street while their owners skated. The police will check this.

The Board then went into an Executive Session at the request of the Town Manager to discuss the 1969 Budget and Tax Rate.

POWDER PUFF MECHANICS

The North Suburban YMCA in Woburn is offering a new class designed specifically for the Woman Motorist. Beginning Monday evening, Jan 20 at 7 pm, Bradley Sears of the Blue Hill Vocational School will instruct a ten-week course for the Powder Puff Mechanic.

The knowledge many motorists have about their automobile stops at the ignition switch and steering wheel. This is a course for that type of person. The basic mechanical workings of the car, owner maintenance, and emergency repairs will all be covered. Does the repair-man overcharge? This course will teach what to look for to prevent over-charging, and what to do when the car stalls, or won't start.

Bradley Sears has a wealth of experience. He has been a garage owner for five years and a service manager at various car agencies for six years. He is now a teacher at the Blue Hill Vocational School in Canton.

For women interested in learning more about automobiles, call 935-3270 or 3271, at the North Suburban WYMC, 553 Main Street Woburn.

Sign Appeal Filed Before Deadline

Town Counsel Alan Altman, yesterday afternoon, filed objections in the Superior Court, and in the office of the Outdoor Advertising Board, to the proposed sign to be erected off Route 93, for the Valle Steak House at the Andover-Lawrence line.

It was Touch-and-Go, all day Wednesday, with Mr. Altman being asked Wednesday morning to prepare the briefs, and have them filed in the Court and in the office of the OAB before they closed their doors for the day. He succeeded.

The decision to file was made by the Planning Board late Tuesday night, with the assistance of George Boylen, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen.

Former chairman Danny Gillis started the ball rolling at 8 pm when he read a copy of a letter from the OAB to the Board of Selectmen, which stated that the last time to file objections was on Wednesday.

There were a lot of telephone calls, and there was much conversation, and it finally developed that the Selectmen probably had never seen the letter.

The sign which is the subject of the controversy is planned to be erected on property owned by Bob Evans, in North Wilmington.

Sign Law

While this and other business was going on, the Planning Board, Tuesday night, noted in a letter on Planning and Zoning that the Town of Brookline has a by-law which controls billboards, with zoning laws, seemingly in contradiction to the powers of the Outdoor Advertising Board, which has the power to grant or forbid signs on the highways of Massachusetts.

The letter said: Rep. Michael Dukakis, a sponsor of many of the Roadside Council's bills, informs us: Interpreting Section 29 of Chapter 93 (General Laws) 'cities and towns may further regulate and restrict (billboards) . . . by ordinance or by-law . . . not inconsistent with S29-33, Ch. 93' to mean that local legislation can be as restrictive or more so that the rules and regulations of the Outdoor Advertising Bureau.

Brookline's zoning by-law restricts signs as to sizes, districts, distances from parks, highways, intersections, and prohibits them from residential districts, bans moving signs and roof-top signs. Non conformance must be discontinued after five years.

Copies of the Brookline by-law can be obtained from the Mass Federation of Planning Boards.

The board noted that the deadline for Warrant Articles for the annual Town Meeting is Monday, at 4:30 pm.

The board received a letter from Flynn & Flynn, attorneys for the Lopez Realty Trust, which owns land off Concord Street. The letter in effect said that there is no plan at present, for future work. The Planning Board is trying to 'clean-up' old development plans.

A plan was received from Atty Bill Diamond of Reading, for the land on which the Charles River Breeding Laboratories stands, totalling 50.8 acres. After some discussion the plan was signed. It seemed to be in preparation for a 'land-courting' process.

Mr Gillis and Mrs McKie reported on a conversation last weekend with A P Rounds of Stoneham, regarding the 'self-help' program easterly from Hathaway Acres.

Gillis reported that Professor Elliott is disappointed that the Allen land, proposed for school purposes is being kept for horse training. Gillis believed that the Planning Board, the School Board, and the Permanent Building Committee should have a joint session to talk over future land acquisitions.

The Planning Board received a report on the appeal of the Dragon Cement Company, for a new tower on Eames Street, at their plant. The board was not exactly happy.

The new tower, heard before the Board of Appeals, is proposed to be 104 feet high, and to cost half a million dollars.

The purpose is to increase the efficiency of the cement unloading operations, with bigger trains of cement coming down from Thomaston Maine. All cars are to be closed in - no hopper cars. The reported increase in trucking, it was said, will be only 10%.

Gillis broke out the copies of the agreement made when Dragon Cement moved to Wilmington, in which it was said that the only other building that would be needed would be a storage shed for bagged cement.

He said that Dragon was 'doing a good job' but that the Planning Board would have to look into the new proposal very carefully.

The height limit, in an industrial zone, is 30 feet.

Atty Patsourakes of Lowell submitted a plan for the Land Court of land between Marjorie Road and Lloyd Road.

The plan was found to be not the same as the town plans, and was determined to have to receive the approval of the Planning Board, with Walter Hale not voting.

A letter will be sent to Atty Patsourakes, pointing out that a structure of some kind exists within the required sideline area of land left out of the plan, by the new sideline.

A letter was received from the State Federation of Planning Boards, saying that no new legislation is being sought by the Federation this year, but that the Federation will study all legislation submitted.

Both Mr Gillis and Mrs McKie took umbrage at this, as they had consulted with the State Federation relative to the proposed new law for Wilmington's 50 foot lot problem.

The two members studied the by-laws for the Federation, and found out that no new nominations could be made from the floor, in a meeting, without having first notified all members in the state, in writing. The board voted to send a letter to the state secretary, asking for a complete membership list, so that the Wilmington members can nominate from the floor, at the annual meeting of the State Federation.

Mrs McKie reported that the Wilmington Planning Board had received over 700 replies to its '701' questionair. The board was pleased at this. They had expected about 400.

They stated that Wilmington residents who had not received the '701' questions, and who wanted a set, could call the Planning Board office Friday, between the hours of 3 and 5 pm.

There is to be a new secretary, starting next week. Mrs Evelyn Burke of Harris Street is replacing Mrs Ann Simmons.

Her Friday hours will be from 11 am to 1 pm.

Bid Awarded for Nichols Street Bridge

Rep. Fred F. Cain has announced that the Massachusetts Department of Public Works has awarded the contract for construction of the Nichols Street bridge to the lowest bidders, the Bendon Engineering Corporation, and the Bendon Construction Company, bidding jointly.

The bid was for $317,281. Work is to begin shortly, and it is expected will take 18 months.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS AT ROCCO'S NEXT THURSDAY NOON

The Wilmington Chamber of Commerce will meet at Rocco's Restaurant, on Main Street, at noon Thursday, for a Membership Luncheon. State Senator Ronald MacKenzie is to be the guest speaker.

The recent ballots, cast for members of the Board of Directors, are to be counted, and an election of officers will be held. Only 17 ballots had been returned as of Tuesday. 68 sets had been mailed out. At least a one-third return is necessary.

The Annual Meeting of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce has been tentatively set for Feb. 28th., at the Tompson Club in North Reading.

The Board of Directors will meet next Thursday, either before or after the luncheon at Rocco's

Everyone Enjoys the Town Crier's Salt Mine

This just happens to be one of those things that happens in a community.

Back in 1910 a young fellow by the name of Walter Hale had a farm on what is now Cross Street. He hired Howard Horton, a carpenter, and Peter Neilson, a mason, and had a home built there.

Then he sold the place, after a few years, to a man named Dexter. Dexter's first name isn't recalled today, but he and Mrs Dexter were killed, in an automobile accident, sometime during World War I, and the farm became the property of George Griffiths. There were no Dexter heirs, and Griffiths had a bill against the farm, so he got it.

Griffiths happened to own another farm, where the Town Dump is today, and he raised Blue Hogs there. He had a big billboard by the side of the road that proclaimed that Wilmington was the Home of the Largest Blue Hog Farm in the United States.

It was quite an impressive sign, and proved something or other about Wilmington.

Today the place that was owned by Walter Hale is where the Yentile family lives, on Cross Street. It is necessary to tell the story of that farm in order that the reader may understand how the Town Crier has acquired a Salt Mine.

Yes, a Salt Mine. It is in back of the old railroad station where the Town Crier is published, and when Town Crier employees make an error (they do sometimes, but rarely) they are threatened with being sent to the Salt Mine!

To get back to that old farm. Back in 1915 or thereabouts, when either Dexter or Griffiths owned the place, there appeared, one day in the late fall, a street railway work car, on Lowell Street. It was loaded with railroad ties, and a few employees, who unloaded those ties and left them beside the road — on the Dexter/Griffiths farm.

The street railway company had a planned program of replacing old railroad ties, and that load was being set aside for the work that would start next spring.

But when the employees of the Boston — Lowell Street Railroad returned, next spring, the railroad ties were gone.

Either Dexter or Griffiths had used them all up — to make a fence for the farm's cattle!

The reader can see those ties today, all around the Yentile farm. The attorney for the street railroad told the foreman that he had no business leaving those railroad ties on private property, for then they became the property of the man who owned the land.

Let the reader take a look, next time he is on Lowell Street, or on Cross Street. That fence is still there!

Salt Mine

Which brings the story up to the Town Crier's Salt Mine.

Last spring the publisher of the Town Crier bought some land from the Town of Wilmington, land which is adjacent to the Town Parking Lot in North Wilmington, and behind the old railroad station.

The town's Highway Department uses a part of that lot, as everyone knows, on which to mix the town's sand/salt supplies for the winter snow storms. Hundreds of tons of sand, and fifty to seventy five tons of salt are used, each winter.

And the salt, which comes in 20 ton truck loads, is dumped on the land that the Town Crier's publisher bought.

If those railroad ties belonged to Dexter or Griffiths, then that salt must belong to the Town Crier. And that's the origin of the Town Crier's more or less famous Salt Mine!

There has been some good natured joshing about it, between the employees of the town and the publisher of the paper. The publisher is always threatening to stop the employees from using 'his' salt. Of course it is all in fun.

Chapter III

The people of Wilmington have long had an affection for the Town's salt/sand pile.

Back in the days when it was behind the Town Garage that stood where the Police Station is today, the people of Wilmington would drive up in their family flivvers, and get a bucketful of salted sand, in case the flivver got stuck on some icy spot. The town has always been good-natured about this.

And, when the sand pile was transferred to North Wilmington's parking lot, the old Wilmington habit was transferred too. Wilmington people, on Saturdays and Sundays, still drive up to get a supply of salted sand, just in case the family car gets stuck somewhere.

But now things are more out in the open. Passersby note the activity and join in. Hundreds of cars arrive at the salt-sand pile every Saturday and Sunday. The men have small palls, or large rubbish containers or plastic waste baskets.

No one objects. After all it is a difficult thing to get sand, anywhere.

But others have their eyes, not on the sand/salt pile, but on the Town Crier's Salt Mine.

They take five pounds, in a small pail, or twenty, or a hundred, in larger containers. All day long.

The Town of Wilmington probably gave away over two tons of salt, last Saturday and Sunday.

Right out of the Town Crier's Salt Mine!

IT IS JUST DANDY: These two men say, as they shovel salt into their truck!

COMPUGRAPHIC ENJOYS RECORD SALES

Record sales of $3.6 million for the Fiscal Year 1968, ended on Sept. 30, more than 44 percent higher than 1967's $2.5 million were announced today by the Compugraphic Corporation of Wilmington.

The rapid growth, William W. Garth Jr., president, states, marks the eighth successive year of accelerated progress since the firm was founded in 1960. The firm is an innovator in computer typesetting systems.

Keeping pace with the increasing sales was employment. At the close of Fiscal Year '68, the firm employed 340, and expects to increase that number to more than 400 in the next several months.

During the year the company strengthened its internal marketing and sales organization, and terminated its previous selling arrangements with others.

In May 1968 Compugraphic introduced a new line of economical and reliable photo composition which was received enthusiastically by the trade.

Added formal emphasis was also placed on research and development, leading to new products and allowing the firm to retain its technological leadership. Brought in as research vice president was George Sausele, widely known specialist in the photo typesetting industry.

During Fiscal '68 Compugraphic consolidated its patent positions, allowing the firm to move ahead rapidly.

To acquire needed capital for expansion, the firm sold a small portion of its stock to the Boston Capital Corp. Simultaneously the firm obtained Joseph Powell, Boston Capital president, for its Board of Directors. As continued evidence of its faith in its future, Garth said, the firm during Fiscal '68 rejected several offers by other organizations to acquire or merge with Compugraphic.

In early December it also expanded into a 25,000 square foot production area in Stoneham. In 1969 the company will move to a new 70,000 square foot headquarters on Industrial Way, overlooking Route 93, in South Wilmington.

Compugraphic's sales are continuing at an expanded rate, Garth states. During the first quarter of Fiscal Year 69, shipments are at the annualized rate of $4.5 million, with a continued healthy backlog of orders.

High School Sports

The Wildcat sextet, playing one of their poorest games of the young season, tied Masconomet last Wednesday as sophomore Jim Irwin scored with just eleven seconds remaining in the game.

Trailing 3-2 with 26 seconds left, Coach Palm pulled his goalie, Dana Tighe, for an extra skater. Masconomet cleared the puck and pushed it towards the open net. However, defenseman Mike Esposito hustled back to grab the puck and head back toward the Chieftan goal.

Esposito moved through a maze of Masconomet players at the blue line and fired a shot that Chieftan goalie Pete Masse kicked onto the waiting stick of Jim Irwin. Irwin quickly lifted the puck into the upper corner of the net to even the score 3-3.

Wilmington drew first blood at 6:42 of the game, when sophomore Ray York converted a pass from sophomore Dave Irwin. The Chieftans knotted the score at 7:58. Early in the second period Masconomet went ahead, 2-1, when Wilmington had trouble clearing the puck out of their own zone, and a goal resulted on a shot that Dana Tighe was screened from, and never had an opportunity to save. Most of the second period was played in the Wilmington area as the Wildcats continued to play listless hockey.

The boys clawed back to even the count at 2-2 early in the third stanza. Esposito began the play by skating into heavy traffic at the Chieftan blue line, and then fed Dave O'Connell, who promptly rifled his sixth goal of the season past the suprised Masco goalie.

The Chieftains roared back, however, at 4:11 to regain the lead when Wilmington failed to clear a rebound shot. This set the stage for the last second heroics of Mike Esposito and Jim Irwin.

At the end of the first round of play O'Connell leads the squad in scoring with 11 points (6 goals and 5 assists). Jim Irwin (5-3-8); Jack Irwin (2-4-6); Pete Tighe (4-1-5) are the other leading point getters.

Sophomore goalie Dana Tighe has made 67 saves over the first round of play and has allowed 14 goals for an average of 2.8. The offensive unit is averaging 4.2 goals per contest, firing 144 shots at the enemy goaltenders.

The Girls Varsity basketball squad continued on their winning ways last week, dropping Bedford 39-29, on Tuesday and topping Burlington 40-28 on Friday.

In the game against Bedford the Wilmington girls jumped ahead early as Mary Harrison (12) and Joan Cushing (14) led the way to a 21-11 half-time lead.

Against Burlington it was a case of playing catch up, as the Wilmington girls trailed for most of the first half, and left the court trailing by a point, 20-19 at the buzzer. Coach Dadoly must have perked the girls up, because they proceeded to out score the female Red Devils by a 21-8 margin in the second half for a 12 point victory. Mary Harrison and Joan Cushing again paced the team, scoring 11 and 15 points respectively. The Co-Captains, Penny Hadfield and Pat Cote, were superb on defense once again.

The JVs are now 1-2 as they lost to Burlington 16-15 and defeated Bedford 19-10. Sophomore Stephanie Langone has been the one bright spot for the younger girls so far in early play.

Basketball

The Varsity boys stayed close to No. Andover and Andover in Conference basketball, as they won two close ball games last week.

On Tuesday they edged Tewksbury 64-61, as they came from a four point deficit at halftime to outscore the Redmen in the closing half 40-33. The game was won at the free throw line, as the Wildcats made 16 in 32 attempts, compared to 11 for 22 for Tewksbury.

Capt. Ed Thomas (17), Jim Tildesley (11), Dan Ballou (11), and Milt Cram (10) led the way to th Wildcats fourth victory of the season. The JVs defeated Tewksbury 51-38, and the Freshmen lost to the younger Redmen 32-27.

Friday at Burlington the Wildcats came from behind once more as Capt. Thomas scored 12 points in a wild fourth quarter.

They were trailing by eight, 50-42, as they entered the final frame, and proceeded to outscore the Red Devils by 11 points, 26-15 for their fifth seasonal victory. The JVs won their fourth game against one lost, defeating the younger Burlington squad, 46-39, with Bill Gustus leading the way. Vin Shano registered 20 points on 10 field goals for his seasonal high, in the game against Burlington.

The leading scorers for the varsity are: Thomas (137); Tildesley (85); Shano (76); Ballou (64); Cram (40). On Tuesday afternoon the Wildcats put their 4-1 conference record up against the Lions of Chelmsford (3-1) in a very big ball game for this surprising quintet. Tomorrow night the boys will travel to North Andover to play the Black Knights, whom no Wilmington Basketball team has ever beaten.

Nosey Nancy

Send your announcements to Nancy, Box 208, Wilmington, or call 657-7141, and after five 658-4865. If I'm not there, I'll call you.

Sorry about that short talk last week...Seems that we didn't have enuf pages, so you know who had to get cut off...That's one thing about this job, you know not when it's going to happen!

Let's get the boys in: From Jim Hanson in the 3d Marine Division (REIN) FMF Vietnam, 5 Jan 69: 'Dear Nancy, I was glad to get your card from the Depot. I would have written sooner but we keep moving so now that I've got a little time I thought I would write a little note just to say thanks

So, thank you very much, and say Hi to everyone. Jim'

And from Chick Lowell: '12 Jan 69: Dear Nosey: I wish to thank you and the Andrews Family again this year for the very nice Christmas Cards.

'Being here in Libya is a completely different experience, as we've only had cars here for five years, and they don't really know how to drive them. Most of the people are poor, and make their money from sheep and llama herds. The country makes its money from the oil fields and the money the United States gives them.

'The base is located outside off Tripoli, right on the Mediterranean. The Mediterranean is something else. The water is as clear as a bell. In the winter, it is choppy and in the summer, it is as smooth as glass.

'Would like to know if anybody from Wilmington is stationed farther south than Tripoli, Libya. Chick Lowell'

(Chick, I don't think that anyone is below you, but the boys should let us know if they are. Incidentally, they tell me your papers are on the way last week...ok? And thanks to you for the note Jim... Was just talking with your mother about you the other day)

The Youth Group on Human Rights wants to thank all of the people who contributed to the Blafra Relief and signed the petition that America should give more financial help to Blafra, and wanted to call to your attention that they have jars in the stores. Put your pennies in. Also, this weekend Jan 16, 17, 18, they will be doing odd jobs and babysitting to raise money for their projects...So if you need to clean that attic or cellar, or need somebody to sit on the kids, call 658-3586, or 658-8455 at any time to make your date...They guarantee good work!

Don't forget to let Joan Kritter know what your date for Kalendar is by writing your special function to Kalendar at 11 Pilling Road in Town.

Jeekers, we were some disappointed to see the Community turn out at the American Field Service the other night for the Foreign Exchange Student. Plenty of school faculty were there, but as for local folk...tch...and we need this type of thing. It has been this chick's theory for many years that if 25 students were sent from every town and city in the U.S. to a foreign country, and they returned 25 students during the High School years that all of this aggression would cease, because that would be person-to-person work, and all would understand each others ways...but, looks as though at this speed, we may be exchanging with the moon first! So let's go! Let's be getting on the phone and calling Ann Vayo on Boutwell Street to see what we can do about an exchange student!

Speaking of students...Did you see the mural that the 7th and 8th graders at the North Intermediate School did of the Nativity and did loan to the Methodist Church during the Advent Season? This mural must have made a great impression on the young folk that participated...Congratulations to the North Intermediate...Wish the library was finished so this could hang there for all of the Town Folk to see!

Carol Redler called us and said that the Figure Skating Club got off to a booming start with a great attendance last Thursday. Classes are still being formed. Thursday Evening 6:30 to 8:30 at the Skating Club on Chestnut Street...free admission to the Gals - large and small. For further information call Carol at 658-8199.

In Sick Bay is Jane Coester at the Symmes Memorial in Arlington and Ernest Ardolino at the Choate Hospital in Woburn, both recovering from operations...Out with the cards there, Gals!

Please note this: It would seem that some of the ignorant young folk in this Town are trying to give a hard time to the Youth Committee on Human Rights members...and that is just why this town needs this group...These are young people of conviction of all races, colors, creeds, that believe in their and others rights to have equality, part of the endowment of the Bill of Rights and so...perhaps some of those young folks who are bullying should come to a meeting or two to see what things are all about and what type of study these young folk are doing...and did these bothersome fellas help a family have a wonderful Christmas too? The Human Rights Youth did...the whole bit...all the way!

By Louis

One of the greatest geniuses, of the earliest medical pioneers, was Galen, who practiced in Rome.He belonged to the school of medicine which believed firmly in dissection, and in experimentation.Many refused to listen to Galen, when he said the cords in the heart were not nerves.And when he challenged the theory of the brain as an organ to cool the heart, they almost threw him out of town.However, he did leave a huge legacy of medical information. He located the brain as the center of the nervous system, and even demonstrated how injury to a portion of it could result in paralysis.We hear more each day about ways to heal and replace vital organs. For the newest
